Dear Sisters and Brothers,

The Sunday after Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday. This is a day when the Church proclaims the merciful love of God in Christ. This message is as old as the Gospel but its current liturgical celebration has its origins in the private revelations of Sister Maria Faustina Kowalska. Sister Fustina was a Polish nun who lived in the 1930s and who received extraordinary revelations from Jesus which she wrote down in her diary at the request of her spiritual director. Specifically, these revelations beautifully express God's message of mercy. Here's one example in which God says to Sr. Faustina: "I sent prophets wielding thunderbolts to My people. Today I am sending you with My mercy to the people of the whole world. I do not want to punish aching mankind, but I desire to heal it, pressing it to My Merciful Heart" (Diary, 1588).

Early on the "Divine Mercy Devotion" flowing from these revelations was resisted because some powerful churchmen thought it diminished the necessity of the sacrament of reconciliation. But after a full investigation carried out by Karol Wotyja, Archbishop of Krakow and future Pope John Paul II, it was shown to be a good and holy devotion and it was fully rehabilitated and encouraged among the faithful. As Pope, John Paul II would both beatify and canonize Sr. Faustina. In fact, he referred to the day of her canonization as the happiest day of his life. In his homily for her canonization he proclaimed, "...by this act I intend today to pass this message [Divine Mercy] on to the new millennium. I pass it on to all people, so that they will learn to know ever better the true face of God and the true face of their brethren." Providentially, Pope John Paul II died on the Vigil of Divine Mercy Sunday and both beatified and canonized on Divine Mercy Sunday.

My friends, let us heed the message of Sts. Faustina and John Paul II - God is rich in mercy! Let us never be discouraged when confronted by the reality of our sinfulness. Instead, let us run to God, especially in the sacrament of reconciliation, and allow Him to lift us up and restore His life and love within us.

Lastly, I invite you to join me on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 7th, at 3pm in the Church as we pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet together. This will be a special opportunity to pray that all might turn back to our Father God and experience His merciful love. I hope you can join us!

Peace,

Fr. Matt

HOSPITALITY NEWS!!!

Mark your calendar! Please join us on the weekend of April 20 & 21 for our next BRING A FRIEND TO MASS weekend. Whether it's a friend, neighbor, out of town Visitor or your child's classmate, we encourage you to come to Mass and join us afterwards for hospitality hosted by the Welcome Wagon.

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who promised to stay with us always, until the end of the age. Reawaken our wonder at His presence in the Most Holy Eucharist. May our hearts burn within us as He opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread. Give us the eyes of faith to recognize His presence in our brothers and sisters, especially in the face of the poor and the suffering. Nourished by the Eucharist, send us forth to walk faithfully as missionary disciples, proclaiming the Gospel to every heart and extending Your kingdom to every land. We ask this through Christ our Lord. /Amen.

PRAYER FOR AFTER HOLY COMMUNION

Holy Trinity, Father, Son, Holy Spirit, I adore you deeply and I offer you the precious Body, Blood and Divinity of Jesus Christ present in all the tabernacle on earth, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifference with which He Himself is offended. And, for the infinite merits of his most holy Heart and of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I ask you for the conversion of poor sinners. /Amen

Eucharistic Miracle of The Hosts of Siena Italy, 1730

Contributed by: Katie Canty

On August 14th, 1730, on the eve of the Feast of the Assumption, the parishioners and clergy of St. Francis Church in Siena, Italy were attending a festival away from their Church.

Thieves entered the deserted Church and went to where the Blessed Sacrament was kept, picked the lock to the tabernacle and carried away the golden ciborium containing consecrated Hosts.

The next morning, when the priest went to the tabernacle, he discovered the Hosts had been stolen. Later, a parishioner found the lid of the ciborium lying in the street, and the suspicion of sacrilege was confirmed. The traditional festivities for the feast of Our Lady's Assumption were cancelled and the Archbishop ordered public prayers of reparation, while the authorities began a search for the consecrated Hosts.

Two days later, someone noticed something white protruding from the offering box at a different church in Siena. The priests opened the box and found the missing Hosts inside amidst the cobwebs and dirt. The Hosts were compared with some unconsecrated ones used in the Church of St. Francis, and proved to have the same mark of the irons upon which they were baked. The number of Hosts corresponded exactly to the number the Franciscan friars had estimated were in the ciborium -- 348 whole Hosts and six halves.

The Hosts were placed in a new ciborium and taken back to the Church of St. Francis for prayers of reparation and veneration.

Since the hosts were dirty, the priests decided not to consume them but let them simply deteriorate. To the amazement of the clergy, the Hosts did not deteriorate, but instead, remained fresh and even retained the characteristic scent of unleavened bread. With the passage of time the Conventual Franciscans understood they were witnessing a continuing miracle of preservation.

Several investigations took place over the ensuing decades into the authenticity of the miracle including conducting multiple tests and examinations.

The Catholic Church confirms this miracle and assures us that although they were consecrated in the year 1730, these Eucharistic Hosts are still really and truly the Body of Christ. The miraculous Hosts have been cherished and venerated in the Basilica of St. Francis in Siena for over 250 years.

Prayer

God, help me to be patient with my doubting friends. Show them that Jesus is their savior, too.

Mission for the Week

Talk to God about a friend who does not believe in Jesus. Ask God to give you the right words to say about Jesus. Then ask God to help you be patient.

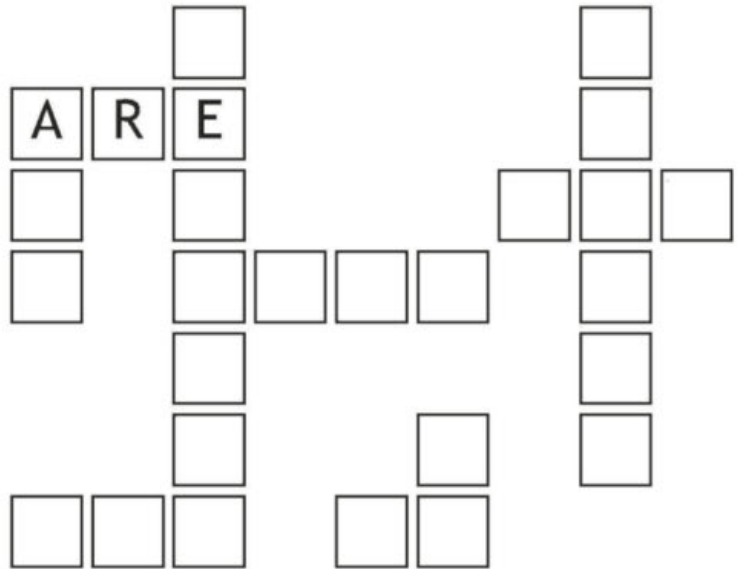

Sharing the Gospel

In today's Gospel, Thomas had a hard time believing his friends. Jesus was alive! They saw Jesus! Well, Thomas could not believe it. He needed proof. Thomas wanted to see Jesus for himself. Thomas wanted to touch Jesus' scars on his hands and his side. Once Thomas did that, then he would believe. You may have doubting friends like Thomas. Be patient with them. Do not get angry with them. Love them instead, and gently tell the truth about Jesus. Ask Jesus to open their hearts, so they can believe in him, too.

APOSTLES CREED

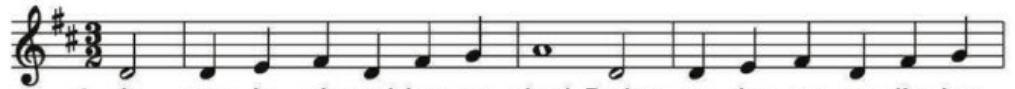

I believe in God,
 the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 His only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived
 by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified,
 died and was buried;
 He descended into hell;
 on the third day He rose again
 from the dead;
 He ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Holy Catholic Church,
 the communion of Saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen
