QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“The Word was in Mary’s womb. He inspired His mother to visit Elizabeth; Mary carried to John his Master and King. John could not come, for his mother was too old to undertake that journey; Jesus Christ went to him. He did the same for us: we could not go to God; God came to us.”-St. Peter Julian Eymard

PARENT LEADERSHIP

“Don’t let teens drive a car until they’ve really grown up. See maturity as growth in responsibility - that is, active concern for the rights and feelings of others.

- Jim Stenson, Compass

ONLINE GIVING:

Thank you for your Donations!

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

February is Black History Month and it is important for us to acknowledge and celebrate the lives and contributions of our Black brothers and sisters to the growth and development of our nation. While there are many incredible lives we could reflect upon this month, I'd like to highlight the life of Sr. Mary Wilhelmina, OSB.

Sr. Mary Wilhelmina was born Mary Lancaster on April 13, 1924 in St. Louis Missouri and was the descendant of African-American slaves in that region. She joined a religious congregation of Black nuns at the age of seventeen, took the name Sr. Mary Wilhelmina, and spent the next fifty years of her life as a schoolteacher in the Eastern part of the United States. At the age of seventy, she sensed God calling her to found a new religious order of nuns. In 1995, she founded the Benedictines of Mary, Queen of Apostles who are now located in Gower, Missouri. She was known for her humility, devotion, and surrender to God's will. Sr. Wilhemina died on May 29, 2019.

Sr. Wilhelmina's story made the news in May 2023 because when her remains were relocated to a new place of burial they were found to be incorrupt. When transferring her remains it was reported:

The sisters expected to find bones but after a few days of digging, they lifted up the simple wooden coffin and quickly noticed a massive crack down the middle of the lid. The prioress of the order, Mother Cecilia, discovered that their foundress' remains, including her religious habit, were almost perfectly intact.

Incorruptibility is understood by Catholics to mean that God prevents the normal process of decomposition to take place as a sign of someone's holiness and famous incorruptible saints include: St. John Vianney, St. Julie Billiart, and St. Catherine of Genoa. Since this discovery people have traveled by the thousands in pilgrimage to visit Sr. Wilhelmina and seek her intercession.

My friends - what a story! Sr. Wilhelmina, like so many Black Catholics, forms an important part of our Catholic heritage here in the United States and we give thanks to Almighty God for her generous response to His love. I encourage you to read more about her life because I think you'll find it an inspiration to greater fidelity and holiness as we gear up for Lent. May we all become the saints God calls us to be!

Peace,

Fr. Matt

Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who promised to stay with us always, until the end of the age. Reawaken our wonder at His presence in the Most Holy Eucharist. May our hearts burn within us as He opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread. Give us the eyes of faith to recognize His presence in our brothers and sisters, especially in the face of the poor and the suffering. Nourished by the Eucharist, send us forth to walk faithfully as missionary disciples, proclaiming the Gospel to every heart and extending Your kingdom to every land. We ask this through Christ our Lord. /Amen.

Eucharistic Miracle of St. Clare

Contributed by: Katie Canty

In 1234, the army of Frederick II of Swabia, known for their cruelty and savagery, ransacked their way through Assisi. As the barbaric invaders entered the monastery of San Damiano, where St. Clare and her fellow sisters resided, St. Clare, filled with faith in the Real Presence of The Eucharist, took the monstrance holding the consecrated host, from one of the chapels. She brought it to the window near the place that the soldiers had set a ladder against the wall, ready to scale the wall and attack the sisters. St. Clare prayed to God to spare the life of her sisters and to protect the city of Assisi.

When she raised the Blessed Sacrament up high, the soldiers fell off the ladder as if dazed by a mysterious force and the whole company of soldiers fled from the monastery and the city of Assisi did not suffer any damage.

2024 NATIONAL MARRIAGE WEEK, FEBRUARY 7-14

The observances of National Marriage Week (Feb. 7-14) and World Marriage Day (Sunday, Feb. 11) are an opportunity to focus on building a culture of life and love that begins with supporting and promoting marriage and the family. This year, USCCB's theme is "Love Beyond Words".

The California Catholic Conference has also announced "Radiate Love: Celebrating Marriage & Family" with a year of prayer and activity in all California parishes.

What is World Marriage Day?

World Marriage Day (WMD) honors husband and wife as the foundation of the family – the basic unit of society. It salutes the beauty of their faithfulness, sacrifice, and joy in daily married life.

History

The idea of celebrating marriage began in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, in 1981, when couples encouraged the mayor, the governor, and the Bishop to proclaim St. Valentine's Day as “We Believe in Marriage Day.” The event was so successful, the idea was presented to and adopted by Worldwide Marriage Encounter's National Leadership.

By 1982, 43 governors officially proclaimed the day, and celebrations spread to U.S. military bases in several foreign countries. In 1983, the name was changed to “World Marriage Day,” designated to be celebrated each year on the second Sunday in February. In 1993, his Holiness, Pope John Paul II, imparted his Apostolic Blessings on World Marriage Day (WMD). WMD celebrations continue to grow and spread to more countries and faith expressions every year.

At Visitation we will have a special blessing for all the married couples next week at the end of each Sunday mass to celebrate World Marriage Day (Feb. 10-11).
