QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"The works of mercy are innumerable. Their very variety brings this advantage to those who are true Christians, that in the matter of almsgiving not only the rich and affluent but also those of average means and the poor are able to play their part. Those who are unequal in their capacity to give can be equal in the love within their hearts."

-Pope St. Leo the Great

PARENT LEADERSHIP

"Teach your kids to cope with reasonable adversity, not to escape."

-Jim Stenson, Compass

ONLINE GIVING:

Thank you for your Donations!

Thank you for your continued Support and Generosity to Church of the Visitation!

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

During Mass some years ago, I couldn't help but read the shirt of someone approaching to receive Holy Communion. It read: "In a world where you can be anything, be kind." I must say, this message grabbed me and it's one that I come back to consider often.

Specifically, what does it mean to be kind? Sometimes I think kindness gets a bad wrap. It can so easily be confused with a certain naivete or a happy go lucky passivity that is more reflective of fear and cowardice than heroic virtue. Authentic kindness - the virtue of kindness - is something quite different. "Kindness," writes Romano Guardnini, "is something deep and strong." For example, when confronted with another's sins or imperfections the kind woman does not aggressively insert herself to dominate, control, and "fix" the person. At the same time, she does not run away or pretend everything is fine and dandy. Instead, a woman with the virtue of kindness understands that people don't change overnight and that they need space and freedom to grow and learn. Well aware of her own weaknesses, she embraces a gentle and resilient posture that gracefully accompanies others on a journey to God and personal growth.

We are all called to be kind and it is Jesus who shows us what that looks like. Imagine what he thought of the apostles when he first met them: a rough and unrefined bunch, no? And yet he still called them and patiently endured their faults and infidelities (up until the very end!). It is important to realize that Jesus, under the guise of "kindness" did not turn a blind eye to reality and sin. He faced it - head on - and kindly accompanied them with patience and endurance. Ultimately, Jesus offers his life in love for them and their salvation. And he does the same thing with each one of us. In fact, Lent is a time to remember the kindness of God who reaches out to us in mercy time and time again. In gratitude, we then approach others with the same kindness that God has shown us. So I ask you, are you a kind person? How about we all take this week to learn from Jesus so that in a world where we can be anything, we're kind to one another.

Lenten Blessings,

Fr. Matt

Don't Forget:

- Join us for our final Encounter Night this Friday @ 6:30pm in the church. Families and children are welcome!
- Please pray for our candidates for full initiation into the Catholic Church as they participate in the Rite of Calling with Archbishop Gomez on Sunday, March 3rd.
- Take some time for personal prayer this Lent by listening to The Daily Brief meditation series.

TUTORS NEEDED!

Interested in giving back to the community in an awarding way? Have you considered tutoring a child in math or English once a week at St. Margaret's Center? No experience needed just a big heart and a desire to make a difference. Please contact Karen Holyk-Casey at tutoringatstmargarets@gmail.com, and she will be glad to connect and answer all your questions.

HOSPITALITY NEWS!!!

Our next Hospitality will be held on Sun, Mar 10 hosted by the Knights of Columbus. That day is also National GIRL SCOUT Sunday, so scouts will be participating and helping at the 11:00 Mass and Hospitality as a way of sharing their faith! Please join Troop 1625 in this special celebration.

Come and spend some time with the Lord!

First Friday Holy Hour

March 2, 2024 8:30AM – 9:30AM

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who promised to stay with us always, until the end of the age. Reawaken our wonder at His presence in the Most Holy Eucharist. May our hearts burn within us as He opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread. Give us the eyes of faith to recognize His presence in our brothers and sisters, especially in the face of the poor and the suffering. Nourished by the Eucharist, send us forth to walk faithfully as missionary disciples, proclaiming the Gospel to every heart and extending Your kingdom to every land. We ask this through Christ our Lord. /Amen.

2ND SUNDAY OF LENT - REFLECTIONS - EVERYDAY STERWARDSHIP

Today we are following Jesus up on a high mountain with Peter, James, and John. There they see Jesus "transfigured," his face like the sun and his clothes as white as light. Jesus is there conversing with Moses and Elijah. What are we to make of this image of Jesus, the earthly teacher of this small band of disciples? They were merely followers of a teacher, a rabbi. When they see this and hear a voice proclaiming, "This is my beloved Son..." they begin to realize this man is more than just a rabbi. However, Jesus tells them to keep this a secret until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead. Well, they have no idea what this means. Therefore, they continue to follow him as if he was just a human, a teacher. However, we live in the time after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead. Now it is we who must proclaim the good news of Jesus, the Son of God the Father. Take this week and think about how, in your own way, can proclaim through your words and deeds the Jesus is your savior, your teacher, and rabbi.

DAILY BRIEF

The Daily Brief is a series of daily Lenten meditations based on the day's readings and read by our very own Visitation priests. Starting with Ash Wednesday on Feb. 14 and throughout all of Lent, we invite you to take 5-6 minutes of your day to listen and reflect. Watch in full screen or close your eyes. The meditations will be available under the Resources tab on the church website.

LENT UNPLUGGED

Our popular 'Lent Unplugged' meditation series is back in person. It began on Tuesday, February 20 at 7 PM and continues for the following four Tuesdays in March until Holy Week. These drop-in, candlelit meditation evenings in the church are designed to help us slow down, unplug, and create the inner quiet we need to hear God's voice. Please consider attending.

Prayer

God, I can hardly wait to see Jesus glowing in heaven.

Mission for the Week

Make some lemonade with your family. Then add food coloring to completely change the way it looks. As you mix the ingredients together, talk about how Jesus was completely changed.

Sharing the Gospel

Start with a pile of blocks. Add your imagination and you can build a castle or a city. You can change that pile of blocks to look completely different and wonderful. In today's Gospel, Jesus was completely changed. He started out looking like an ordinary man. Then, right in front of Peter, James and John, something happened. Jesus glowed brightly like the sun. Even his clothes became bright white. Talk about changing into something different and wonderful! God let Peter, James and John see Jesus as he looks now in heaven.

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God,
 the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 His only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived
 by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified,
 died and was buried;
 He descended into hell;
 on the third day He rose again
 from the dead;
 He ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
