QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK: REFLECT AND RESPOND TO THE SCRIPTURE

FIRST READING: In prayer, the prophet Isaiah grieves over our sins that separates us from God. What sorrow or distress have you experienced over the past week?

SECOND READING: Paul offers up a prayer of thanksgiving to God for the many gifts the believers have received because of their faith in Jesus. As we begin the season of Advent, for what are you thankful?

GOSPEL: Each Advent, the Gospel reading begins with Jesus instructing his disciples to watch carefully for the end times. How often do you think about the Second Coming of Jesus and judgment day? LPi

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“Young people say, ‘What can one person do? What is the sense of our small effort?’ They cannot see that we can only lay one brick at a time, take one step at a time; we can be responsible only for the one action of the present moment. But we can beg for an increase of love in our hearts that will vitalize and transform these actions, and know that God will take them and multiply them, as Jesus multiplied the loaves and fishes.”

-Dorothy Day

PARENT LEADERSHIP

“Take corrective action without showing disrespect. Respect your children’s rights as people.” -Jim Stenson, Compass

ONLINE GIVING:

Thank you for your Donations!

Dear sisters and brothers,

Advent is one of my favorite liturgical seasons of the year. Why? First, because it's short :) Second, because as the weather gets cooler and the days get shorter there is an accompanying contemplative spirit that permeates this sacred time. Advent is a prayerful time, a time to slow down - interiorly - and reconnect with God.

As we begin the season of Advent we remember that the word "advent" means coming. The season of Advent, then, is a season in which we prepare for the coming of Jesus Christ, the Savior of the World. As I begin my own Advent journey, I'm inspired to be extra generous in making room for Jesus in the home of my heart this Christmas. I don't want Him to have to face once again the harsh reality of "no room for them in the inn" (Luke 2:7). And so my goal this Advent season is to surrender myself anew to Christ and put things in order so that my soul is fit to receive Him worthily and well.

Don't forget that our amazing staff and wonderful ministers at Visitation are here to help you with your own Advent preparations for Christ's coming at Christmas, too. Our liturgies are filled with beautiful prayers and sacred music; the sacrament of reconciliation is celebrated regularly; The Daily Brief offers fuel for daily prayer; and we have outreach opportunities for serving those who need an extra helping hand this holiday season. We are united and working together as we make room for Jesus in our hearts this Christmas and always.

Have a blessed week and holy Advent!

Peace,

Fr. Matt

Don't Forget:

Holy Day of Obligation: Friday, December 8th, is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception and holy day of obligation. We will have Masses at 8am and 7pm. See you there!

Our Lady of Guadalupe Mass: Sunday, December 10th, at the 11am Mass. Our 5th graders will be hosting us so let's be sure to show them our love and support. Flowers for Mary are encouraged.

Sacrificial Giving: End of the Year donations to Visitation are easy to make. Please see our website for more information. Thanks for your generosity!

DAILY BRIEF FOR ADVENT

The Daily Brief is a series of daily meditations during Advent based on the day's readings and read by our very own Visitation priest. Throughout all of Advent, we invite you to take 5-6 minutes of your day to listen and reflect. Watch in full screen, or even close your eyes. The meditations will be available under the Resources tab on the church website.

WE SHARE YOUR GRIEF DURING THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

"Please check the Visitation website under Resources/Bereavement for a list of Grieving, Cancer, Hospice and Palliative Care note titles. These are very helpful and powerful small articles. Please contact Candy Blankenship at 310-338-9043 or blank8840@gmail.com and she will mail them to you at no charge." Such titles include Getting Through the Holidays When You've Lost a Loved One, Ten Ways to Honor a Deceased One at Christmas, Overcoming the Blues at Christmastime, Your First Christmas After a Loved One Dies, Giving New Life to Your Christmas Celebration, Rediscovering the Many Gifts of Christmas, and many, many more.

Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who promised to stay with us always, until the end of the age. Reawaken our wonder at His presence in the Most Holy Eucharist. May our hearts burn within us as He opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread. Give us the eyes of faith to recognize His presence in our brothers and sisters, especially in the face of the poor and the suffering. Nourished by the Eucharist, send us forth to walk faithfully as missionary disciples, proclaiming the Gospel to every heart and extending Your kingdom to every land. We ask this through Christ our Lord. /Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. / Amen.

Monthly Eucharistic Miracle

The Miracle of St. Anthony and the Mule

Contributed by Katie Canty

Saint Anthony of Padua had a tremendous passion for the Real Presence of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist.

In 1227, Saint Anthony heard of a man in the town of Rimini named Bonovillo, who ridiculed anyone who believed that Jesus was present in the Eucharist. Bonovillo said to Saint Anthony: "I'll keep one of my mules locked up for three days to feel the torments of hunger. Then I will bring it forth in public and show it food. You will stand in front of it with what you maintain is the Body of Christ. If my mule, hurries to adore its God, and ignores the food, I will share the faith of your Church."

Three days later, a great crowd filled with both believers and heretics, gathered in the town square. Saint Anthony stood off to one side with the Blessed Sacrament in the Monstrance, while Bonovillo brought his mule toward the center of the square.

Saint Anthony said to the mule: "Creature of God, in His name, I command you to come here to adore Him, so that it will give truth to all, of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist."

Bonovillo placed the oats and hay under the mule's nose. All watched in breathless anticipation as the mule, against all odds, turned his head and walked over to Saint Anthony. When he got close to Saint Anthony, the mule knelt down on both legs, and bowed his head in reverence before the Sacrament and remained there until Saint Anthony gave him permission to stand up.

The crowd and Bonovillo were shocked by what they saw. Bonovillo threw himself at Saint Anthony's feet and denounced to all, the error of his ways, immediately knelt down and professed his belief in the Real Presence of Christ.

From that day on, he became one of the most zealous cooperators of Saint Anthony.

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception is the feast that celebrates Mary's conception without sin. Even though this feast day occurs in the liturgical season of Advent, which prepares for the birth of Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Immaculate Conception refers to the conception of Mary in the womb of her mother, St. Anne.

Holy Day of Obligation
Mass Times: 8AM & 7PM

Advent is a season of waiting and expectation for Christmas – the birth of Christ, the Nativity of Our Lord. We prepare our homes and hearts for four weeks before Christmas. Advent is also the beginning of a new liturgical season – it concludes a long period of Ordinary Time and leads us into the new church year with hope and patience in preparation for Christmas.

This season was likely first celebrated in the fifth century, originating from the tradition of fasting several times a week, beginning on St. Martin de Tours' Feast Day (November 11) and concluding on Christmas Day. Nowadays, Advent always starts about four weeks before Christmas, on the Sunday closest to St. Andrew's Feast Day (November 30).

Virgen de Guadalupe Feast Day Celebration
Sunday December 10, 2023
11 a.m. Mass

The Visitation 5th Grade Class will present the story of the Virgin Mary appearing to Juan Diego, an Aztec converted to Christianity in Mexico in 1531.

We invite everyone to wear traditional Mexican clothing and for the children to bring a flower to the Virgin as part of the opening procession.

Join us after Mass for some traditional Mexican tamales, sweet bread, champurrado, and candy while we enjoy the music of Mariachi Ausente.

ADVENT
CANDLE/
SUNDAY:
HOPE

“Once in our world, a stable had something in it that was bigger than our whole world.” – C.S. Lewis

It is only fitting that the first candle on the Advent wreath represents Hope – the first Sunday of Advent not only leads us to anticipate the birth of Christ but celebrate the beginning of a new liturgical season as well. The first candle is purple, the primary color of Advent and a color symbolizing royalty. Sometimes called the “Prophecy Candle,” the first candle harkens us back to Isaiah’s foretelling of the birth of Christ and all of the promises God gave us in the Old Testament that would be fulfilled by the birth of Jesus.

Thank you for your continued Support and Generosity to Visitation Church!

Prayer

Jesus, help me to stay ready for you.

Mission for the Week

Play a quick game of baseball. Cheer for one another. End the game with a prayer that you will keep your eyes on Jesus.

Sharing the Gospel

When you play on a baseball team, you learn how to pay attention. Your coach reminds you and your teammates to stay ready. You learn to watch the ball. Those are good lessons to learn, because Jesus wants you to pay attention, too. Keep your eyes and your mind on Jesus, so you're ready when he comes.

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God,
 the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 His only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived
 by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified,
 died and was buried;
 He descended into hell;
 on the third day He rose again
 from the dead;
 He ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God the Father Almighty;
 from there He will come
 to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Holy Catholic Church,
 the communion of Saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen
