ONLINE GIVING:

Thank you for your Donations!

Dear sisters and brothers,

In this third installment of my series on stewardship, I'd like to focus on our joyful readiness to share our gifts. The simple fact of the matter is that God has blessed each one of us in unique ways and these blessings are meant to be shared so as to enrich our world and build up the Kingdom of God. If we do not share our unique gifts, then no one else will. Why? Because no one else has them; only we have them. That's why they are unique.

In general, these blessings from God fall into three buckets: time, talent, and treasure. First, we all have time to give - some more than others - and time offered in love can be such a blessing. Time can be offered listening to others, helping in a parish ministry of one sort or another, or being present to your spouse and children. Second, we all have talents to give - some more than others - and talents offered in love are also a blessing. Maybe you have expertise in technology, finance, or education; maybe you can play the guitar; or maybe you know the Bible really well. Talents like these and many others build up any community and I can think of a million ways we could use them in life and ministry at Visitation. Third, we all have treasure and financial resources - some more than others - and treasure given in love is a blessing, too. Life costs money, as does ministry, and money put to good use in building up the Kingdom is a great form of stewardship.

We are coming toward the end of the calendar year and thinking about ways to "give back" (giving Tuesday, annual gifts, etc). My hope is to expand our understanding of giving beyond money so that we can grow in a spirituality of stewardship that reflects holistic generosity. Once again, we all have something to give, but we don't have the same things. We can't give equal gifts, but we can all make an equal sacrifice that's proportional to our particular situation. This week, let's reflect on how God is calling us to share our gifts and may God reward your generosity in sacrifice!

In Christ,

Fr. Matt

Don't Forget:

- Happy Thanksgiving! I pray that all of you have a wonderful thanksgiving holiday with family and friends. We have so much for which to be grateful!
- Congratulations! Let's congratulate our school children on completing their first trimester - way to go!

Support of the Catholic Campaign for Human Development Collection to End Poverty and Injustice

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development is the national antipoverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops, working to carryout the mission of Jesus Christ "... to bring glad tidings to the poor ... liberty to captives ... sight to the blind, and let the oppressed go free." (Luke 4:18)

The belief that those who are directly affected by unjust systems and structures have the best insight into knowing how to change them is central to CCHD. CCHD works to break the cycle of poverty by helping low-income people participate in decisions that affect their lives, families and communities. CCHD offers a hand up, not a hand out.

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who promised to stay with us always, until the end of the age. Reawaken our wonder at His presence in the Most Holy Eucharist. May our hearts burn within us as He opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread. Give us the eyes of faith to recognize His presence in our brothers and sisters, especially in the face of the poor and the suffering. Nourished by the Eucharist, send us forth to walk faithfully as missionary disciples, proclaiming the Gospel to every heart and extending Your kingdom to every land. We ask this through Christ our Lord. /Amen.

YEAR OF PARISH REVIVAL
JUNE 11 2023 - JULY 17, 2024

Why Now?

BECAUSE THE CHURCH NEEDS HEALING. AND THE WORLD NEEDS JESUS.

Scandal, division, disease, doubt. The Church has withstood each of these throughout our very human history. But today we confront all of them, all at once. Our response in this moment is pivotal.

In the midst of these roaring waves, Jesus is present, reminding us that he is more powerful than the storm. He desires to heal, renew, and unify the Church and the world. How will he do it? By uniting us once again around the source and summit of our faith in the celebration of the Eucharist. The National Eucharistic Revival is the joyful, expectant, grassroots response of the entire Catholic Church in the U.S. to this divine invitation. We hope to see you there.
All are welcome!

"Every morning during meditation, I prepare myself for the whole day's struggle. Holy Communion assures me that I will win the victory; and so it is. I fear the day when I do not receive Holy Communion. This Bread of the Strong gives me all the strength I need to carry on my mission and the courage to do whatever the Lord asks of me.

The courage and strength that are in me are not of me, but of Him who lives in me — it is the Eucharist" - St. Faustina (Diary of St. Faustina, 91)

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN AND VULNERABLE ADULTS

DID YOU KNOW? HOLIDAY HUGS AND BOUNDARIES

Every As children get older, they need to understand not just the rules of social interaction but why people act (or don't act) these ways. Children need to know how to set their own boundaries. The approaching holidays are a great time to discuss these boundaries and how to express them politely. Talk to your children about whether they would like to give hugs to family members, whether they want to give or receive any other forms of affection. For more information, read the article "Teaching Kids about Boundaries" at <https://childmind.org/article/teaching-kids-boundaries-empathy/>.

Prayer

God, help me to use my time, my money and my special talents for you.

Mission for the Week

God has given your family money. Use some of it to buy food for a needy family.

Sharing the Gospel

You can choose to waste your time, your money and your special talents. You can be selfish with them, too. Or, you can use those gifts from God to spread good news about Jesus. When you choose to use your gifts for God, and he will fill your heart with joy.

Now color the picture!

Find the two that are the same.
