First
Sunday
of Lent

*Then the devil took him up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, "All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me."
At this, Jesus said to him, "Get away, Satan!"*

BAPTISMS

The Sacrament of Baptism is celebrated on a separate day for each family after attendance by the parents and godparents at a Baptism zoom class. Parishioners are invited to call the office to get an appointment for these classes. The next ZOOM class scheduled is on Sunday, March 19 2023 at 1pm. Please register to attend by calling the parish office at 310-216-1145. If you are not a current registered parishioner of Visitation Parish and not receiving envelopes in the mail, please call the office for an appointment with the pastor or associate pastor.

LENT IS HERE!

Lent is a great opportunity to involve the whole family in a Lenten practice of PRAYER: an opportunity to spend time with God and deepen our relationship with Him. FASTING: when we fast it helps us to remove obstacles between ourselves and God. GIVING: helps us serve those in need and live Jesus' message of love. These traditional Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and giving alms, remind us that we need God in our lives.

The Daily Brief is a series of daily Lenten meditations based on the day's readings and read by our very own Visitation priests. Starting with Ash Wednesday on Feb. 22 and throughout all of Lent, we invite you to take 5-6 minutes of your day to listen and reflect.

Watch in full screen, or close your eyes. The meditations will be available under the Resources tab on the church website.

Lent Unplugged

Our popular 'Lent Unplugged' meditation series is back in person. It begins the First Week of Lent on Wednesday, March 1 at 7 PM and continues for the following four Wednesdays in March until Holy Week. These drop-in, candlelit meditation evenings in the church are designed to help us slow down, unplug, and create the inner quiet we need to hear God's voice. Please consider attending.

Such titles include Caring for yourself while Grieving, Overcoming Loneliness, What to do after the death of a Spouse, The first 12 months of Grieving, and many, many more.

HOSPITALITY NEWS!!!

Hospitality this weekend is being hosted by the Men's & Women's Cornerstone ministries. Please join them after the Sunday Masses to ask about this ministry/retreat program.

Holy Hour (Inside the church)
This First Friday of the month:
March 3, 2023
8:30AM – 9:30AM

Dear friends,

February is Black History Month, and it is important for us to acknowledge and celebrate the lives and contributions of our Black brothers and sisters to the growth and development of our nation. While there are many incredible lives we could reflect upon this month, I'd like to highlight two Black Catholics who ministered in the United States and who are currently under formal consideration for canonization. Their stories are powerful and offer us beautiful examples of sanctity and transformation in Christ.

Venerable Pierre Toussaint

"Born a slave in Haiti, Toussaint came to New York as property of a French Haitian Bérard family, which later freed him in 1807. Toussaint established himself as a successful hairdresser at the service of New York's upper crust. Taking his gospel call seriously, Toussaint found ways to speak about his faith both explicitly and implicitly. Many patrons, friends, and neighbors benefitted from Toussaint's counsel. Toussaint gained a sizable salary, much of which he put toward a lifelong mission of charity. With his wealth, he purchased his sister's freedom as well as that of his future wife, Juliette. After they wed in 1811, Juliette and Pierre spent their lives together in service to the poor and needy." A daily Mass attendee for more than 60 years, Toussaint was a longtime parishioner at New York's first parish, St. Peter's. Each day he walked the streets to church while being passed by carriages and street cars that would not transport him because of the color of his skin. Rather than becoming embittered by the hardships he endured because of his race and his Catholic faith, the model layman only gave more. Toussaint died on June 30, 1854. In 1990, his remains were moved to St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City" (LACatholics.org, "Venerable Pierre Toussaint").

Venerable Henriette Delille

"Born in 1812 and raised Catholic in New Orleans, Henriette Delille was the fourth generation of freedmen. Delille's family expected her to marry a white man, which would afford them all a better life than if she married a Black man. Records indicate Delille entered into such a relationship but that it did not last long. It produced two children who both died in infancy. Just past 20 years of age, Delille found herself surrounded by grief and hardship. In 1834, Delille experienced a conversion, and she decided to enter religious life. Unfortunately, many religious communities in the United States did not allow Black women to enter their convents. She attempted to find an interracial community with a white woman, but her efforts were shut down by Church leaders who did not think it was appropriate for black and white women to live together in religious life. Her desire for religious life and apostolic zeal brought her closer to like-minded friends, Juliette and Josephine. Together they ministered to enslaved and free girls and women of color. Laying the foundation for a new order, which at the time was known as the Sisters of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, she wrote their rule of life in 1836. Mother Delille's generosity and love was known to everyone who knew her. She responded to the Lord's call with great love, requisite perseverance, and heroic virtue. The last decade of her life was dedicated to attracting new members to the congregation. At the time of her death, 12 sisters of varied racial descents resided at the convent" (LACatholics.org, "Venerable Henriette Delille").

My friends, please join me in celebrating the lives of Venerable Henriette and Venerable Pierre. They form an important part of our Catholic heritage here in the United States and we give thanks to Almighty God for their generous response to His love. I pray that all of us might be inspired to follow in their footsteps. May we all become the saints God calls us to be!

Peace,

Fr. Matt

MERCY BAGS FOR ST MARGARET'S CENTER

One way we are answering the call to serve the poor at Visitation, is to assist St. Margaret's Center in providing hygiene bags for the homeless and working poor that they serve. The need of St. Margaret's Center is so great that as soon as these bags are available, they are given out. We hope to become a consistent resource for St. Margaret's Center by having a once-a-month collection of these essential items beginning March 4th.

We are asking each family in the parish to consider contributing 3-5 Mercy Bags that you assemble at home and bring to church the weekend of March 4th. CVS and Ralphs each have a travel section with inexpensive kits and products to choose from. Below is the recommended content list from St. Margaret's for the most needed items. Use a large Ziplock for the contents of each Mercy Bag.

- Soap or Body Wash
- Shampoo and Conditioner
- Deodorant
- Body Lotion
- Razors
- Toothbrush and Toothpaste
- Socks (Unisex tube socks)
- Comb
- Chapstick

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

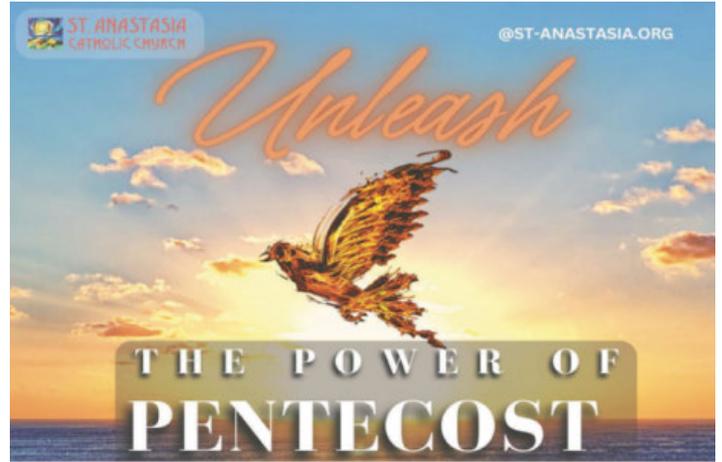

Assemble 3-5 Mercy bags into Gallon Ziplocks at home with your family

Bring your Mercy Bags to the back of the church the weekend of March 4th

Consider making an extra bag or two to keep in your car to give to someone in need.

Contact Dan Smith if you have access to large amounts of these products for donation.

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God,
 the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 His only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived
 by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified,
 died and was buried;
 He descended into hell;
 on the third day He rose again
 from the dead;
 He ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God the Father Almighty;
 from there He will come
 to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Holy Catholic Church,
 the communion of Saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen
