QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"The glory of God is the human being fully alive, and the life of the human being is the glory of God." - St. Irenaeus

PASTOR'S POST

Easter! Once again, we celebrate this feast, but what is it that we celebrate when we celebrate Easter?

Well I certainly know the opinion of our children in Junior Kindergarten to that question. When I was in visiting with them last week, and asked what was the meaning of Easter, the response was immediate. "Easter eggs!" And why not. For centuries, the egg has represented the promise of new life. Who of us doesn't need to have whispered in their heart that new life awaits us. Not just in heaven, but here. Now. In this life. I pray that the resurrection of our Lord will give you that hope that comes from the certainty of God's love. I hope that this day brings you new life.

Let's all go hunting for Easter eggs, shall we?
After all, the promise of new life is out there waiting for us.

- Father Jim

Loving Father, throughout the years, you have blessed our parish and for that we are ever grateful. Now we are in a time of transition and uncertainty as we await the announcement of our new pastor. Bless our church leaders with your wisdom. We ask you to bring us a leader who is rich in faith, passionate about your Word, firmly rooted in justice and truth, and a gentle shepherd who will journey with us. May our Church of the Visitation continue to grow in love and faith with this new leader. We pray this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Life and Dignity of the Human Person Prayer:

God of all life, help us to appreciate the great gift that is human life formed in your image, a reflection of your holiness. Help us to recognize you in all whom you have created: children not born yet, families affected by poverty and war, people of different abilities. people from other lands, and all who are victims of hatred and racism. Help us to bear witness to the dignity of all whom you have created, regardless of stage of life or wealth or ability, or color, or creed, for every person is fully equal in your loving eyes. Share with us your holy knowledge that we are all your children, each bestowed with inherent dignity. May your justice reign forever!"

HAPPY EASTER FROM THE SOCIAL JUSTICE MINISTRY!

On Sunday, April 12 at 12:30 p.m. we will have a meeting to discuss the survey results in the O'Grady Center.

EASTER

QUESTION:

Why is the Easter season so long? And should we be doing something special for it?

ANSWER:

You've probably noticed the priest continuing to wear white vestments at the Sunday liturgy. While we celebrated Christ's resurrection several weeks ago, the Easter season extends fifty days — just over seven weeks — from Easter Sunday to Pentecost. For most of that time — about six weeks — Jesus is still with the disciples, teaching and encouraging them. The Easter season isn't just a celebration of when Jesus is with us. At the Last Supper, Jesus promised to send an "advocate" or "counselor" when he left. At the Ascension, he directs the disciples to await "power from on high" — the coming of the Holy Spirit. The Ascension completes the Paschal Mystery, beginning with Jesus' suffering and death and continuing in the resurrection. But the Holy Spirit ushers in a new era for the Church.

After spending weeks in prayer, fasting, and service during Lent, it may seem odd that we don't widely have similar practices for Easter. That doesn't mean you can't embrace the season! Commit to taking moments of little joy throughout the weeks, like random acts of kindness towards others. Consider reading the Acts of the Apostles to learn more about the early Church or picking up an Easter devotional to pray with. He is still risen indeed!

DEVOTIONS EXPLAINED!

Connect with Tradition and Grow Your Faith

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy is an intercessory prayer invoking God's mercy on the world, utilizing words drawn from the text of The Diary of St. Faustina Maria Kowalska. St. Faustina was a Polish nun who received visions of Christ imploring her to spread the message of his Divine Mercy, specifically through the recitation of this chaplet.

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy is prayed using an ordinary five-decade Rosary. To begin, make the Sign of the Cross, then pray one Our Father, one Hail Mary, and the Apostles' Creed. On each of the large beads (where the Our Father is said), pray: "Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world." On each of the 10 smaller beads (used for the Hail Mary), pray: "For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world." This pattern is repeated for all five decades of the Rosary. To conclude the chaplet, pray three times: "Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world."

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration of the Week

The disciples didn't understand, at first, what happened at the tomb. Often, we can't fathom the purpose of God's plan. We only see a stone in the wrong place. When we pause and look deeper, we see it: God has moved the stone. So, we must ask ourselves: why?

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

ACTS 10:34A 37-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostle

Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING:

COLOSSIANS 3:1-4

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Colossians

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Or

1 CORINTHIANS 5:6B - 8

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters: Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough? Clear out the old yeast, so that you may become a fresh batch of dough, inasmuch as you are unleavened. For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed. Therefore, let us celebrate the feast, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

JOHN 20:1 - 9

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Glory to you, O Lord.

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
