QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK: REFLECT AND RESPOND TO THE SCRIPTURE

FIRST READING: Moses taught the Israelites that God would raise up a prophet like him to teach them the Lord's commands. But he also forewarned about false prophets. How can we avoid listening to false prophetic voices?

SECOND READING: Paul expresses his desire for the Corinthian believers to be free of anxiety so they can focus their attention and energies on Jesus. What distracts you from the Lord?

GOSPEL: Mark informs us that early in Jesus's public ministry his "fame spread" quickly throughout Galilee because of his powerful deeds, such as the healing of the demon-possessed man in today's reading. Is there something or someone in your life that you pray Jesus would heal?

PARENT LEADERSHIP

"Be confident in your rightful authority [as parents], which comes from your God-given vocation, and insist that your children respect it."
- Jim Stenson, Compass

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

ONLINE GIVING:

Thank you for your Donations!

Dear Friends,

After a brief post-Christmas slow-down, we are gearing up for many great opportunities in the coming weeks at Visitation. Here are some highlights:

- Today marks the beginning of Catholic Schools Week and we are so blessed to have a parish school! It is our largest ministry and I'm grateful to Principal Watson for his leadership and to our families for their trust and collaboration in the formation and education of their children. Please visit the school website ( visitationschool.org) to learn more about Visitation Catholic School. Our open house is coming up on January 31st. Please invite family and friends!
- On February 21st we're kicking off our Lenten Bible Study on the Eucharist. We're partnering with the Augustine Institute to offer a 10-part series on discovering the Mass in the Bible. This study will engage your mind, faith, experience, and imagination; moving you beyond simply reading to reflection and response to God's Word. Register now! Visit our parish website.
- Our Liturgical Ministry Fair after Masses in Mary's Courtyard this weekend. Come and see how God might be calling you to serve as a Greeter, Usher, Reader, Eucharistic Minister, or Altar Server. We are hoping to grow these ministries so please respond generously!
- Now is the time to start planning for our parish to join the Archdiocese for a pilgrimage to Indianapolis, IN for the National Eucharistic Revival Congress July 17-21, 2024. If you are interested and would like more information, please reach out to Courtney O'Donoghue: development497vc@gmail.com. For more information about National Eucharistic Revival Congress; lacatholics.org/national-eucharistic-congress/
- The Superbowl Sunday Breakfast is back! Tickets are selling fast so be sure to get yours today. Please contact Tony Leoni for more information: aleoni@pachell.net.

As you can see we have many wonderful things going on at Visitation! I am so proud of all of you and may God's blessings be upon us as we labor together in the Lord's vineyard.

Peace,

Fr. Matt

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who promised to stay with us always, until the end of the age. Reawaken our wonder at His presence in the Most Holy Eucharist. May our hearts burn within us as He opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread. Give us the eyes of faith to recognize His presence in our brothers and sisters, especially in the face of the poor and the suffering. Nourished by the Eucharist, send us forth to walk faithfully as missionary disciples, proclaiming the Gospel to every heart and extending Your kingdom to every land. We ask this through Christ our Lord. /Amen.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN AND VULNERABLE ADULTS

DID YOU KNOW? THE CRIME OF CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

Child pornography is the visual depiction of a minor in sexually explicit conduct. There is some general public confusion surrounding the term "child pornography" — for example, some people believe that child pornography can be accidentally found while browsing the internet, or that the "children" depicted are actually older and simply appear younger. Using the term "child pornography" can also minimize the horrors of children being exploited for profit in this way. To learn more, read the VIRTUS® article "Responding to the Crime of Child Sexual Abuse Materials" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Catholic Schools
United in Faith and Community

Catholic School Week January 28 - February 3

Today we start Catholic Schools week. Catholic schools have a special purpose to form students to be good citizens of the world, love God and neighbor and enrich society with the leaven of the gospel and by example of faith. As communities of faith, Catholic schools instill in students their destiny to become saints. Academic excellence is the hallmark of Catholic education intentionally directed to the growth of the whole person – mind, body and spirit. Finally, service is fundamental to Catholic education and the core of Catholic discipleship. Service is intended to help form people who are not only witnesses to Catholic social teaching, but also active participants through social learning.

This year's new theme is Catholic Schools: United in Faith and Community and will be used through 2026. May we all strive to live in active service of Jesus and his mission as we nationally join together during Catholic Schools Week and always.

VOTED #1 PRIVATE SCHOOL JK-8
TWO YEARS IN A ROW!

Lent, a season of reflection, self-examination, and spiritual preparation leading up to Easter, beckons individuals to focus on prayer, fasting, and acts of service. It is a time for sharing one's gifts and ministering in the church, be it as a lector, eucharistic minister, greeter, or altar server. In this season, one is encouraged to consider these roles as opportunities to contribute to the collective spiritual journey of the community, embodying the essence of Lent through prayerful reflection and dedicated service.

- Lector: Proclaim the first and second reading and reads the Prayers of the Faithful. Must be at least in the 3rd grade and have received their First Communion.
- Eucharistic Minister: Distributes the Precious Body and Blood during Communion. Person must have received Confirmation.
- Usher: Assists with Collection and the flow of Communion. All ages are welcome.
- Greeter: Greets people and hands them a bulleting as they enter the church. All ages are welcome.
- Altar Server: Assists the priest during different parts of the Mass including holding the book and assisting with the presentation of the gifts and altar. Must be in 4th grade or above.

Saint of the week

St. Ignatius of Antioch, a bishop of Antioch in the first century, was a direct disciple of the apostle John. Despite being thrown to the lions and martyred in Rome’s Colosseum for his faith, his teachings and hope for Christian unity live on as early examples of Christian theology.

Prayer for the Youth

Dear Lord,
 Be with our young people this week and always — keep them in Your care. Help them to form godly friendships, speak the truth, and know You in the personal way that will challenge, shape, and guide them. Amen.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

With one swift command, Jesus freed a man from the possession of evil spirits. He has that same power to banish the shadow of sin from our own lives. Let’s invite him into our hearts, asking him to cleanse the darkness he finds there.

GOSPEL MEDITATION Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I love movies about exorcisms. Apparently, so do many others. The 2023 movie “Nefarious” features a possibly possessed inmate on death row. Critics were not impressed, but audiences scored it at 97% on the website Rotten Tomatoes. Most people have an appreciation for the demonic realm, even if cultural elites are generally embarrassed about it. As is standard in exorcism movies, the afflicted person (in this case, a man named Edward Brady) thinks and acts like multiple persons. He is someone besides himself. We know what that is like. We feel fake sometimes, not ourselves.

The same dynamic is on dramatic display this week in the Gospel. Jesus the Exorcist approaches a possessed man who utters, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth?” Notice the plural, us. The basic effect of the demonic is division. The man’s identity is fractured, divided, and thus many. Jesus powerfully expels the spirit by saying, “Quiet! Come out of him!” Jesus’ word has the power to restore the man’s singularity — him — and indeed it does.

All this helps us to dismiss childish images of demons sporting red goat tails. Equally, it overcomes the cultured aloofness that dreams demons are mere metaphors for evil. We see instead that fallen angels are conscious and intelligent beings who orient their agency toward division. They bring about schism where there should be unity, e.g., in persons, families, communities, politics, and so on. Thankfully, Jesus commands demons to flee from all these places to restore wholeness and peace. What if we made room for his word where we need it?
 — Father John Muir

Prayer

God, you are much stronger than evil. Nothing is too hard for you to clean.

Mission for the Week

Make a new label for your family's stain pre-treatment bottle. Trace around the bottle, write Mark 1:21-28 in big letters, and decorate your label with a picture of Jesus. Tape your new label to the bottle so you and your parents remember how strong Jesus is.

Sharing the Gospel

Grass stains. Tomato sauce. Brightly colored fruit drinks. When these nasty stains stick to your clothes, it is tough to get them out. Regular soap won't work. You need something stronger. Jesus is really strong, too. In today's Gospel, a nasty evil spirit screamed when it saw Jesus. Jesus was so powerful, he cleaned that evil spirit right out.
